

Curriculum Vitae

David Kershaw-Wright

BSc(Hons) MIET

Nationality British
Discipline Security Risk Assessment, Security Project Management
Position Associate Director
Qualifications BSc(Hons) Electronic & Electrical Engineering
 Member of Institution of Engineering and Technology

Professional Experience

David is a pro-active successful security professional with over 20 years experience in challenging business-to-business roles in both public and private sector organisations, including Board Director, Sales Management, Business Development and Marketing in the UK, Europe and overseas. A director with experience of delivering security, fire, safety solutions and consultancy projects across: rail, public sector, built environment, infrastructure, defence, oil & gas and process industry markets. As a risk owner, David has direct experience of facility management, project and programme management. Security cleared, David has delivered CBRn vulnerability assessments of critical infrastructure sites for UK Security Service and research/consultancy projects in CBRn and fire risk for UK Government.

Career History

2010 to Present Date

SGW Security Consulting

Recent projects include:

- Imperial War Museum - Security
- King Saud Abdulaziz University – Security & Safety
- Kings College London - Fire
- NM Rothschild - Security
- CPNI – Explosion Trials, CBRn Risk
- MoD HQ – Fire
- MoD – CBRn Risk

Previous Experience

2009 – 2010

Kingfell PLC

Head of Business Development and Marketing

2008 – 2009

Arup Security Consulting

Associate

2007 - 2008

Health and Safety Executive

Director Hazard Reduction