

Curriculum Vitae

Rupert Cloke BSc HND MIET

Date of Birth 31 October 1970
Nationality British
Discipline Security Strategy and Mitigation Technology
Position Senior Security Consultant
Qualifications BSc Electrical & Electronic Engineering

Memberships Institution of Engineering and Technology
 CCTV User Group

Professional Experience

Rupert Cloke is a Senior Security Consultant with over fourteen year's security consulting experience, following a background in electrical & electronic engineering. His sector experience is predominantly in the fields of Public Space Surveillance (PSS), Commercial, Education, Government, Museums and Galleries, Retail, Hotels and Leisure. Some of Rupert's recent projects include:

- University of Glasgow
- Natural History Museum in South Kensington
- Museum of the Order of St John
- Ballymun Regeneration, Dublin
- Dublin City Gallery The Hugh Lane
- Wexford Council Offices, Ireland
- Stroud town centre
- Olympic Media Centre
- Emirates Stadium (Arsenal executive suite and retail block)
- Academies: Ealing; Chelsea; Paddington; St Mary Magdalene, Islington
- The Dyson School of Design Innovation

Career History

2010 to Present Date

SGW Security Consulting

Rupert's duties include: risk and threat analysis; surveying; security strategy development; system design; integration; specifying; CAD; budget development and cost management; tender management and bid analysis; project management/ contract administration; snagging and witness testing. Other areas of specialisation are: business continuity; disaster recovery; control room design and implementation; servicing and maintenance contracts; security system audits and upgrades.

Previous Experience

2008 to 2010

Ian Johnson Associates

Senior Security Consultant

2005 to 2008

Buro Happold

Security Consultant

1995 to 2004

Be Prepared Limited

Security Consultant